A Legally GUARANTEED CURE for Hog Cholera

Think of it, Mr. Farmer, here's a remedy for hog cholera that is sold under a "Legal Guarantee Bond." How can you afford to take chances against hog cholera when you can get this remedy on such terms?

Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy
Is the only remedy ever put up that is guaranteed to cure and prevent hog cholera. It does the work better than any other known remedy, or it would not be sold on such a strong guarantee. Guar. $100.00. At All Drug Stores.

Farm and Stock News

Edwards & Thompson, of the Crab Orchard section, sold here last week 600 pound cattle at 6 to 10 cents per pound.

John W. Brittain, of Smyrna, Tenn., recently sold a choice Hereford bull calf to James Hunter, of Cookeville, Tenn., for $325. He sold a junior yearling and bull to Evans & McLaughlin of Shelbyville, Tenn., for $285, and a good yearling bull for $200 to D. E. McPherson, of Bellevue, Tenn.

The Midway Clippers says: As a sample of American thrift we might mention that wool is now around one dollar a pound, yet this country maintains 25,000,000 dogs, at least 20,000,000 of which are utterly worthless. These 20,000,000 brutes are hereditary enemies of the sheep, and are alone responsible for the inexcusable scarcity of the wools in this country.

The Hodgenville Herald says: Mr. W. M. Elliott, of near Hodgenville, recently killed two hogs with a combined weight of 875 pounds. One hog weighed 400 and the other 475, making them two of the largest that have been reported this year. Mr. W. H. Coffey, of Hodgenville, recently sold a big hog which brought him more than $100, which surpasses the record of W. W. Gannaway and son, who sold a hog for $75.95.

The Stanford Journal reports the following sales in that section: P. L. Peck bought of J. C. Young 12 yearling cattle at $37. J. Fox Dudderar bought of T. W. Jones eight nice calves at $20. Sam Matheny sold to T.

W. Jones two 700-pound heifer cows at 7 cents per pound. Henry Catron sold to T. W. Jones a pair of small horse mules for $230. J. W. Williams sold to Center Brothers, of Garrard, 37 export cattle weighing 1,387 pounds, at 12½ cents per pound. George Jett, of the Parksville section, sold 40 100-pound shoats to Webb & Rupley, also of Boyle, at 20 cents. Andy Gooch, out on the Somerset pike, sold to T. W. Jones 21 700-pound cattle at 8 cents. Mr. Gooch bought of Mr. Jones 10 yearling cattle at $39.

MODEL HIGH SCHOOL

The Olympic Literary Society postponed its regular meeting on account of the extremely cold weather. They will hold it on Saturday of this week.

The Model High School basketball team, of which Miss Edith Nunn is captain, have been getting in a lot of practice work and have very flattering prospects. Those included in this team are: Misses Mary Katherine Jasper, Nannie Evans, Mary Louise Covington, Frances English, Louise Terrill, Mary Emily Chenault, Margaret Doty and Ella Lula Hord.

The Model High School girls will entertain the Parent-Teachers Association on Friday, January 25, at half past two o'clock.

The school is suffering at present from an epidemic of mumps, number of cases being reported.

The State Federation of Labor which is in convention at Ashland, went on record as favoring free textbooks for the schools, more salaries for the teachers, the state owning its printing shops and bindery and civil service for municipal firemen and policemen.

The Somerset Journal says that L. B. Guffey, of that city, has invented a device to fit on a gun which conceals the flash when it is fired at night. He has submitted it to the War Department.

NON-SUPPORT OF MOTHER

Charge That Gets Baldwin Man 60 Days In Jail.

Marion Newby, aged 63, of the Baldwin section, was given 60 days in jail by County Judge W. K. Price in court Friday morning of a charge that he will not support his 80-year-old mother. Mr. Newby's defense was that he offered to build a house for his mother but that she refused to live in it. Rice Cosby was the chief witness for the mother, while his daughters, J. H. and Tom Jones, testified for Newby. Attorneys Chenault and Wallace who represented Newby, will probably appeal the case.

January Corn $1.27½.

Alfalfa Show At Lexington.

During Farmers' Week at the Agricultural College, Lexington, January 29-February 1, the Kentucky Alfalfa Growers' Association will have a competitive show. The entries will be three inch (diameter) bundles of alfalfa sown last summer; five inch bundles of alfalfa sown prior to August 1, 1917; and also a class for the best bale of alfalfa. Handsome prizes are offered to the winners. An effort is being made to have a demonstration of alfalfa products prepared for human food. This was one of the most interesting features of the week last year. Everyone is welcome.
